

Monday Pray for Delivery of Bibles via Treacherous River

Lindy and Carol Drake minister itinerantly among the Guanano people of Brazil and Colombia. “The Guanano Old and New Testaments and Bible lessons for evangelism, which we had stored in São Gabriel when we left, began the long river trip into Colombia. Some will be distributed to the Guanano villages along the way. Others will be stored at the mission base in Colombia for later distribution. The trip is long and treacherous. You will remember [that] our good friend and Bible teacher Jhoni died by drowning in one of those rapids. So please pray for safety. Orlando and Efraim will need God’s protection and physical strength to complete the task. Those boxes are heavy and need to be portaged a myriad of times to get around the worst rapids. Because of your faithful giving, the Drakes and Spors were able to finance this trip by river. We are grateful. Thank you for your prayers.”

Tuesday A diverse team in Papua New Guinea

Bart and Emily Allen minister among the Amdu people of Papua New Guinea. “If you’ve been reading our updates and following along with our story for very long, you should know plenty of details about the Amdu people and the work that the Lord is doing in our remote location. But we are just one small part of a broad network of ministry that is being done in Papua New Guinea by Ethnos missionaries (known in PNG as New Tribes Mission-PNG). It’s a privilege to be part of a great team of the Lord’s servants who minister in a variety of roles and locations.

Wednesday Wari' New Testament Celebration in Brazil

David and Angie Kern minister at a school for missionaries' children on the banks of the Amazon River in Brazil. "A few weeks after we started with our responsibilities of teaching, Angie and I headed out on a trip (1 hour and 20 minutes by jet, approximately 6 hours by bus, and then a bit over 2 hours by boat) to be with the Wari' people (also known as the Pacaas Novos) and to celebrate with them as they received their very own Wari' New Testament in one volume.

"Here is a picture of my dad handing out the Wari' New Testaments to the Wari' pastors. Words fail me to describe what it was like to be among these beautiful people again and to witness the result of the many years of hard work in Bible translation — something especially, to which my mom had dedicated her life in ministry, among the Wari'. I imagine that she was rejoicing [over it] in heaven!"

Thursday Ethnos360 Bible Institute: Where Bible education and mission are one

Ethnos360 Bible Institute is a two-year Bible institute with campuses in Waukesha, Wisconsin, and online. It is part of our broader ministry organization and is the initial phase of Ethnos' missionary training program. EBI offers a dynamic learning experience with the purpose of preparing you for effective ministry. At EBI, you will have the opportunity to study all 66 books of the Bible. You can expect to rub shoulders with people from a variety of countries, cultures, and backgrounds, many of whom go on to be missionaries around the world. This energetic community will present you with many opportunities to grow in your faith. MISSION STATEMENT: The purpose of Ethnos360 Bible Institute is to establish believers in the foundational truths of the Bible with an emphasis on church planting among people groups without the gospel. Pray for the Spring semester as students that will be starting back up in January.

Friday Teaching God's Word among the Baniwa people of Brazil

Joe and Kandi Depue minister among the Baniwa people of Brazil. "Joe and I are so glad to be here in the jungle with the privilege [of starting to] teach God's Word. Because our level in the language still has lots of room to improve, we use language helpers to check over the Bible lessons we are preparing. This is tedious for sure! But one thing I noticed is that, as we are developing our lessons with those helpers, we are discipling them in one sense. They are being taught and fed in a personal, intimate way, one on one! So, we want to specifically ask that you pray for our language helpers: Valedrie and Erasto, whom Joe works with. I mostly work with Docinaia, a young girl around 20 [years old]. She is very interested in understanding God's Word and values that it be taught clearly. I do not think she is saved, but that could very possibly change with her growing understanding as we study God's Word."
