

Monday Pray for the Nukak Literacy Project in Colombia

Colin and Megan Rogers minister among the Nukak people of Colombia. “Ethnos literacy consultants ... encouraged our team to begin development of literacy primers during the summer this year. The primers will form the basis for a course designed to teach completely illiterate Nukak people to read well. Lord willing, in June the consultants will return to guide us through this intensive primer development campaign. They say we could finish most or all of the necessary primers in the three weeks they will work with us!

“Please pray for foresight, creativity and stamina as we prepare to produce the primers. Please also pray for God’s provision for this project.”

If you would like to give to this project, visit ethnos.ca/bible-translation. Our Translation Fund also provides for literacy materials, so people can read God’s Word and take notes. Use the space for “Special Instructions” to designate the funds to the “Colombia -- Nukak Literacy Project.”

Tuesday The Work Begins in West Africa

Ryan and Cathren minister among the D people of West Africa. Pray for Ryan and Cathren as they continue culture and language acquisition, build relationships with their neighbours and work with their co-workers to prepare a literacy workshop. Pray that God would open doors and prepare hearts among the D people. “The sense of solidarity in this culture is overwhelming and impressive. It’s beyond obvious that it requires a work of God for a church to be planted here. We are the vessels that serve as a means to this end, so we seek to find out how we can best situate ourselves to deliver [God’s] Message.”

Wednesday Pray for the Tigak Bible Teachers in Papua New Guinea

Aimee Hedrick, now living in the USA, ministered for nine years among the Tigak people of Papua New Guinea. She recently was able to speak with members of the Tigak church. The believers ask for prayer for leaders of the church, specifically Paska, Robin, Piulan and Terence. Pray that Tigak women would step up to lead the ladies of the church.

We ask that you join us in praying that more Tigaks would understand God’s Truth. An exciting thing happening is that the men of the church are teaching through God’s Word to a very interested group of their fellow villagers, and the believers are really excited about the opportunity.

Thursday Bought by His Blood

Hans and Liliana Frank minister among the Korevaju people of Colombia and are currently in the culture and language acquisition (CLA) phase. Hans shared with the Korevaju about how the Lord cares for them and for all the nations. He encouraged them to go to other people groups to share the gospel. “But first I told them that they should be purchased by the Father through the blood of his Son, and I asked if anyone wanted to be bought. The grandfather of the community, sitting in the front row, answered, ‘Chu’u!’

“Already understanding some of the language, that moment was unforgettable for me. That simple word expressed by the grandfather had a great meaning in my life. What a joy to be able to understand a word in Korevaju and the deep meaning it had at that moment! The grandfather answered the question of who wants to be bought by saying: ‘Me!’”

Pray that God would establish a strong, mature church among the Korevaju. Pray for the Franks as they faithfully continue their CLA.

Friday Pray for the Baniwa people of West Brazil

Misael and Celia Rodríguez minister among the Baniwa people of West Brazil. “We’re approaching our one-year anniversary in the Baniwa work. We thought by this time we would have established closer relationships with the people, but we don’t feel like that is happening. Please pray that God will give us wisdom as far as how to establish better friendships. [Pray that He would] provide us with language helpers who truly want to help us.”

Sadly, a young man from their village recently committed suicide. “When things like this happen, it leaves us with an even greater urgency to learn the language and culture in order to bring light and hope to those who still live in spiritual darkness.” Pray that God would continue to grant Misael and Celia strength to serve Him among the Baniwa people. Pray that God would work in the hearts of the Baniwa people.
